

McKinsey Challenge 2016

You like solving challenging problems?
You want to learn more about management consulting?

Then join us for the McKinsey Challenge 2016 workshop, Friday November 11, and win a €5,000 scholarship!

At the “Challenge” workshop you will learn how to structure and solve complex business problems in a fun and relaxing atmosphere, together with other distinctive students/graduates and consultants from the McKinsey Athens office.

Find out more and apply by October 21 at www.mckinsey.com/challenge2016.

We welcome applications from students and recent graduates of all academic backgrounds. No business background is required, just passion to overcome the challenge!
